General Terms and Conditions of Membership

The CCSS Youth Centre is offered by the Cumberland Community Schools Society in partnership with Cumberland Community School (CCS) and School District No. 71.

Code of Conduct: All school rules apply. Take Care of Yourself, Take Care of Others, Take Care of the Youth Centre. No alcohol, drugs, fighting or weapons. Staff/volunteers will ask youth to leave the centre if they are unable to follow this Code of Conduct.

Inclusion: The CCSS Youth Centre is committed to the values of diversity and inclusion. The Youth Centre welcomes the spectrum of human diversity including race, gender, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability and religion. Youth share the responsibility of creating and maintaining an environment of mutual respect and support.

Public Computers: Computers should be used in a respectful manner. Inappropriate content (eg. pornography or gambling) will not be tolerated. In addition, no food or drinks are to be consumed at any of the centre's computers.

Smoking Policy: The CCSS Youth Centre and Cumberland Community School grounds are a non-smoking area. Youth who choose to smoke must do so off the property.

Drug and Alcohol Use: Drinking, drugs, or being under the influence will not be tolerated in the CCSS Youth Centre, on the surrounding grounds, or while involved in programs or events connected to the CCSS Youth Centre.

Membership: The Youth Centre is open to youth in grades 6-10. There is a $10 annual membership fee to access the Centre. Memberships are valid from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019.

Memberships to the CCSS Youth Centre may be restricted, suspended or cancelled by CCSS and CCS at any time without notice and without reimbursement.

Note to Parents/Guardians: Youth Centre staff are only responsible for supervising students when they are in the Youth Centre building. They are NOT responsible for supervising students if they leave the building and hang out on the school grounds.
